"Follow the shortest path. Do not get distracted. Go quickly!" Mamá said.
"Do not forget your map."
"Sí, Mamá. I will take the map with me," said Caperucita Roja.

Suddenly, a wolf stepped out of the forest. He was big, and he was bad. So people called him Big Bad Wolf. "Hello, Caperucita Roja," he said. "Look at those pretty flowers. You should take some flowers to Abuelita."

One, two, three, four flowers. Caperucita Roja got distracted.

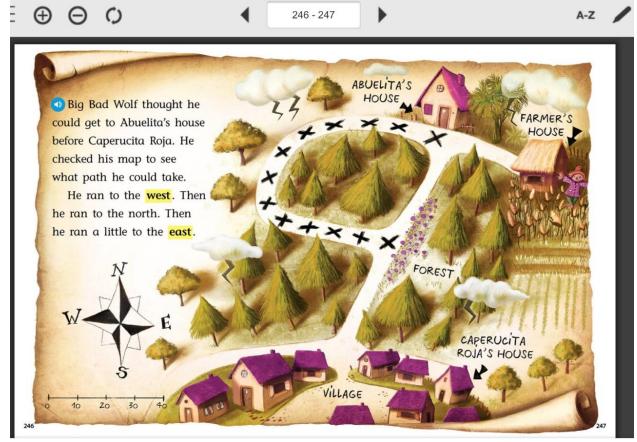

The wolf wanted to eat Caperucita Roja. But people were walking on the path. They would not want Caperucita Roja to be eaten. They would stop him.

 Big Bad Wolf was unhappy. Then he had an idea.

He ran away, but Caperucita Roja didn't notice. She was too busy picking flowers for Abuelita.

(1) "She does not look tasty," Big Bad Wolf said to himself. So he pushed Abuelita out of the bed and into the closet!

Then Big Bad Wolf put on one of Abuelita's nightgowns. "Now I look like Abuelita. I will eat Caperucita Roja," he said to himself.

A STANLE STANLE

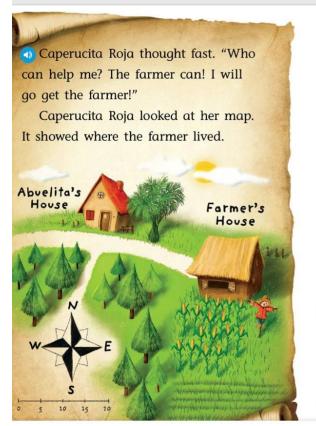

Caperucita Roja knocked on the door. "Come in!" Big Bad Wolf tried to sound like Abuelita. But his voice was too low. "That does not sound like Abuelita," Caperucita Roja said to herself. She opened the door. Something was wrong.

Caperucita Roja saw two long ears. They were not Abuelita's ears. Then she saw one very long nose. It was not Abuelita's nose. She saw two little, brown eyes. They were not Abuelita's eyes.

① Caperucita Roja went east. She ran and ran. She told the farmer about the wolf.

"I scare rabbits out of my garden every day. I will scare away that wolf! I will save Abuelita!" he shouted. And they ran off together.

r[↑]1

When Big Bad Wolf saw the angry farmer, he jumped out of the bed. He tried to go right. He tried to go left. He could not escape. The farmer was too fast for him. So Big Bad Wolf jumped out of the window!

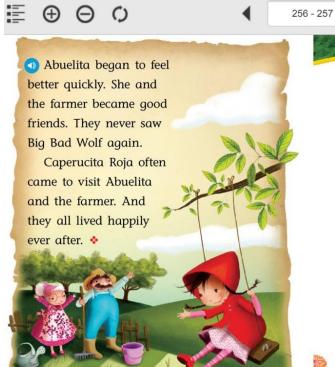

She helped Abuelita back into the bed. "Thank you for your help!" Caperucita Roja said to the farmer. "I could not have saved Abuelita without you."

What else would you add to the ending?
